PRESIDENT SPEAKS ...

Development activities of BMSSS aim at progress and development of underprivileged and needy people living in remote villages. All programs and activities of the organization have given the under privileged a new lease of life. In past many decades, the focus of the organization was to build capacities of women; increase awareness of the rights of the marginalized; fight against injustices heaped upon them; and make them socio-economically strong. The results have been overwhelming. Thousands of underprivileged women have been able to come out of their houses, villages, and traditional way of life characterised by male subjugation. They took the opportunity to become even entrepreneurs successfully carrying out their businesses. It has helped them to improve the livelihood of their families and gain self-confidence.

Although BMSSS continues to engage in women empowerment activities, the organizational efforts remain concentrated on empowering young people in remote areas belonging to lower strata of society through capacity building training, employable skill development and income generation activities. If a helping hand is offered, it is my firm belief that our young people are capable of transforming themselves and the society they live in. Over the years, my experience has shown that empowering and equipping youth sustains the change we look for in communities.

I take this opportunity to thank the director, the organizational staffs, parish priests, parishioners, collaborators among men and women Religious, all foreign and local partners in development for working together with a common aim of progress and development of underprivileged communities. We shall look towards the future with confidence and optimism.

Yours in Christ

DIRECTOR'S DESK...

“In the last few decades, inequality has increased everywhere in the world.” - World Inequality Report 2018

Inequality is not a new reality in the society we live in. It is a fact that inequality already existed thousands of years ago. We know that owners of land and livestock could pass their wealth to future generations. It was a process that made some families richer immediately. The same process goes on even today to perpetuate inequality. The reality is that there are super rich and hungry people in our society. They stare at us for help and much needed change.

Any organization working for the development of people is confronted with the problem of inequality among people. There are rich people and people who are socially and economically backward in any society. What the organization can do through its developmental programs is to improve the lives of the marginalized.

The Archdiocese of Bangalore started BMSSS to reduce inequality from its operational area consisting of six districts in Karnataka. The districts of Bangalore Urban and Bangalore Rural may be rich in comparison to the social and economic backwardness faced by other four districts in the Archdiocese. Through its many developmental activities, BMSSS is empowering mainly women and youth. We can just imagine how much better our society would be if we could unleash the power of women and the young generations in our program area. Being aware of need for change in the society and its mandate given by the Archdiocese, the organization focuses on women and young people in all its developmental programs. It works with the belief that change in the society is possible by empowering women and young people.

We need to realize that empowerment is a process that takes time to reap the results. With the support of many generous donors and with the cooperation and dedication of organizational staffs, BMSSS started the process five decades ago in its operational area and the efforts are on-going.

Today, it makes me happy to present the annual report of BMSSS. The pages with photographs in the annual report 2018-2019 give details of developmental activities implemented by BMSSS during the past one year.

Agriculture in rented Farm land

Neelamma- a member of Sarveshwara Self Help Group (SHG) of Bettadaulsoor village in Kanakapura taluk of Ramnagar district attended BMSSS training on Government Schemes. The aim of the training was to apprise the SHG members about availability of subsidized loan from agricultural department of Government of Karnataka and the ways to access them for improving their agricultural practices to earn more income.

The training improved Neelamma's knowledge on various Government schemes and how she can easily access them. Neelamma realized that growing silk worms was a profitable business in her village. She also knew that mulberry trees do not take much time to grow and it can be easily cut down at any time for other agricultural works. However, she was in a dilemma of accessing Government loan as her family had no agricultural land of her own to plant mulberry trees for growing silk worms. She was advised by the trainer and the animator to lease a land from someone in the village as planting mulberry trees for growing silk worms. Neelamma took a subsidised loan from the government and paid Rs. 20, 000/- towards lease amount for a potato farm in her village on lease. She began to cultivate Mulberry plants on potato farm with the purpose of silk worm growing. She is now able to pay monthly rent for the land besides earning substantial money from her agricultural labour.

Dare to Drive

PRABHA joined St. Anthony's SHG (Self Help Group) of women in KGF and started saving Rs.100/- monthly. Her savings of Rs.3600/- is deposited in the bank account of her SHG.

She got married 14 years ago and has a son studying in 8th class. Her husband was the breadwinner for the family. After her husband's death, she was much troubled without knowing how to meet her financial needs. As she realized that she had to earn for the livelihood of her family, find means for her son's studies, and to live in society as a woman with dignity, she started to learn driving a four wheeler and got a driving license.

As the next step, she took a bank loan, bought a used van and became a driver herself. Her first decision was to reach school children with her vehicle. During the day, she uses the vehicle for reaching patients to the hospital and taking women to Government offices. As the days passed, her van needed repairs for which she was unable to gather sufficient funds. She applied for a loan from her SHG and got Rs. 10000/- for repairs of her vehicle.

With the unrepaired vehicle, she was offering service to children of two schools only. After repairing the vehicle, she was able to pick & drop school children from 4 schools. She began to earn good income too. The cost of fuel for the vehicle is about Rs.12000/- and monthly expenses for vehicle repairs is about Rs.6000/-. The balance amount is used for the school fees and family maintenance. The entrepreneurship development training she got from BMSSS helped improve her business and livelihood. She also shared her dream of buying another vehicle to earn more income and become an employer.
